With Ferrin Cox

It came as no surprise last week when we got visits from some people upset with our comments about the proposal for soliciting donations for construction of a new fire station. A couple of firemen thought we might have been taking a slap at them personally, which we denied. Fire Chief Charles Cox assured us he wouldn't do anything the people of Elba didn't want him to do; and then asked us for an alternate way of constructing the much-needed building. Well, we don't have any magic answers, but do offer one possible solution. The fire department is generally a tax-supported unit, even though the firemen are volunteers (they get a little pay for each fire), and we therefore look to the tax coffers for money. We might add here that we don't think the firemen should be forced to beg for needed equipment or facilities. Now if Elba does indeed need a fire station, payment for this should be considered by our city fathers. Our city officials are operating with long-range plans for the first time in many years, and therefore, if a fire below: station is to be part of their plans, it needs to get in there right away. We suggest that local citizens express their opinions to our elected officials on this matter, one way or the other. We have heard of proposals to borrow money to do some much needed work at the schools to include a new band room, enlarged athletic field house, plus additional lighting and bathroom facilities at the football field. None of these gets any argument from us but we wonder aloud if maybe the fire station shouldn't have at least the same $125.00 for the job. To be stupid I had been. After he pressing priority. There is even a possibility that we could sure that was the total cost I left I could think of several cut back on some of the "pretty" part of the school work and pay for the fire station to house the trucks. We offer these suggestions with full knowledge some will take offense, but hope that the end results will make Elba a better place to

We offer all our readers a very merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. You will find in the second section of the same size of the first house are so exceedingly ashamed paper greeting ads from the merchants of the area, along with Christmas letters from over 600 youngsters! Letters are from students at Elba, Zion Chapel, New Brockton, paint left to do the swindles are reported. I am a Kinston, Project Independence, and this year we added Fleeta, in Covington County, at the request of some parents. These are added to the letters forwarded to us by ol' Santa himself and is the largest number of Santa letters ever published by us in any one year.

HRDC officials report they have a couple of men living alone who are in need of a gas cooking stove. The two brothers were recently found living in an automobile, but have now moved into a small mobile home but have no way of cooking. Any small gas stove donated through HRDC can qualify for a tax deduction. Give them a call now and make your Christmas a little better through making someone else's life a little better.

Christmas is only a couple of days away and at the Mularz house the stockings are hung, the presents are wrapped and we're waiting for Santa Claus to come and leave Melissa Hope some toys! Melissa Hope is only nine months old, so she'll enjoy the wrapping paper and boxes as much as the gifts; however, I promise you she will get a chance to do a lot of playing come Christmas morning. Merry Christmas from Ricky, Kathy and Melissa Hope

COUNTY BASKETBALL ROUNDUP

The county basketball scene became quite interesting last week when Zion Chapel knocked off New Brockton. The Rebels have won only twice, but those wins were over Kinston and New Brockton, making the race for the county title a tossup. Here's a quick look at how it looks at the

Zion Chapel (2-5) may not have a good record, but the Rebels are making believers in Coffee County. The Rebels have enough talent to battle anybody, and as soon as they realize what it takes, they could be big winners! New Brockton (7-1) lost their final game prior to the holidays, but the loss could make a better team out of the Gamecocks. The Gamecocks are good, but not a powerhouse, and I just bet the loss to Zion Chapel will make 'em realize it. Kinston (5-5) is not the 1A power it once was, but the Bulldogs are improving and you can bet they'll be ready to put it all together pretty soon. Kinston will probably win a bunch: however, it won't be easy! CLIPPER BASKETBALL POLL

The final prep poll of the year is not a prediction of who'll be the teams to beat, but they should be in the hunt come season's end.

WHEN DID THEY START WINNING?

I'm not a big pro football fan, but I swear I didn't know the Seattle Seahawks were any good! When I found out they were in the playoffs, I couldn't believe it, until I also found out Chuck Knox was the coach. Oh well, I'd still rather take a nap on Sunday afternoon.

Christmas bells resound with cheer, for the season of joy and laughter is here, bringing to us a special glow of bright festive colors and mistletoe. As our hearts and homes abound with good feelings, we'll revel in the church bells peeling, and the spirit of love that's in the air when Christmas joy is everywhere. With thoughts of thanks and appreciation to our many friends and loyal patrons, Have a Merry Christmas, All!
